OLOMOUC

Olomouc with 100 000 inhabitants is one of the most important cities in the Czech Republic. Thanks to its impressive history, ancient university, many cultural and craft traditions and, above all, its central location in Moravia, the city has long been an attractive destination for tourists and businessmen. A rich and varied past has endowed it with a magnificent collection of historical treasures, making Olomouc the second most extensive urban conservation area in our country after Prague. This ancient historical city, however, is constantly changing and developing into the modern, prosperous centre of the entire region.

Olomouc is a popular and promising destination for congress and incentive tourism. Special congress and training centres, as well as a number of local hotels offer conference rooms with modern amenities. Organisers of large international conferences as well as smaller seminars and business meetings will find all the necessary infrastructure here.

7 REASONS FOR HOLDING YOUR MEETING IN OLOMOUC

1. Olomouc is the „heart“ of Central Moravia

The strategic geographic location makes the Olomouc region an important European centre. It is located at the intersection of long-distance routes, the most important of which is the connection between Vienna and Warsaw. The Olomouc Region is located in the north of Moravia, close to neighbouring Poland and consists of 5 districts: Olomouc, Prostějov, Přerov, Šumperk and Jeseník.

The Olomouc Region's capital is the City of Olomouc which is the sixth largest city in the Czech Republic. Since 2000, the city has been included in the UNESCO World Heritage List, thanks to the Baroque Column of the Holy Trinity. The city is situated on the River Morava and its historical, cultural, military and ecclesiastical significance makes this a significant centre not only of the region but also of the entire Czech Republic.

2. Olomouc is the second most important urban conservation area after Prague

More than 900 years of history ensure that Olomouc is one of the largest historical treasures of the Czech Republic, closely following the capital city of Prague. The heart of the city boasts the second largest monument reserve in the country and the best preserved urban area in Moravia. The most important monuments in Olomouc include the above-mentioned Holy Trinity Column, the Town Hall with Astronomical Clock, Přemyslid Castle, Cathedral of St. Wenceslas, the Church of St. Michael, the neo-Baroque chapel of St. J. Sarkander, the Archbishop's Palace and a set of Baroque Fountains including the seventh, Arion's Fountain, which was completed in 2002. The pilgrimage Church of the Visitation of the Virgin Mary on Svatý Kopeček is also worth seeing. In 1995 it was visited by Pope John Paul II and promoted to a Basilica Minor. | <http://tourism.olomouc.eu>

3. Olomouc is the “City of Flowers”

In the minds of many visitors, Olomouc is known as the “City of Flowers”. This is due to the annually held international Flora Olomouc floral exhibition which has won renowned fame throughout its more than 50-year history and is considered one of the most prestigious trade fairs in Europe today. | www.flora-ol.cz

4. Olomouc is the centre of cultural life

The cultural history of Olomouc is associated with such famous names as W. A. Mozart and Ludwig van Beethoven, who dedicated his famous Missa solemnis (a solemn mass) to Olomouc's Cathedral. The city hosts professional theatrical ensembles of drama, opera, operetta and ballet. You can also visit museums which are unique in the Czech Republic – the Archdiocesan Museum or the Archbishop's Palace, where Franz Joseph I acceded to the throne. There are also several choirs, chamber music ensembles and a number of smaller galleries in the city's backstreets which are attractive to visitors. Olomouc has been a centre of education since the Middle Ages. In 1573, the Palacký University (UP) was founded here, the second oldest in the Czech Republic. Currently there are more than 22000 students enrolled in its eight faculties.. | www.vmo.cz | www.upol.cz | www.arcibiskupskypalac.cz

5. Olomouc and the surrounding area are famous for culinary delights

Only here can you find the only original Czech cheese – the genuine “Olomoucké tvarůžky” cheese – a delicacy with an unmistakably gentle spicy flavour and an unforgettable aroma. It was mentioned for the first time in the 15th century and since then, it has become a popular delicacy and an inherent part of Czech and especially of Moravian cuisine. You can visit a small museum of the history of this cheese speciality in its birthplace at the A.W. company in Loštice. In Olomouc, you can also taste delicious salty desserts made of this cheese at the „Olomoucké tvarůžky” cheese Confectionery. At the Olomouc Information Centre, there is, among other things, a vending machine for „Olomoucké tvarůžky” cheese, and you can also find a shop selling this delicacy nearby. If you have time and interest, attend the traditional „Olomoucké tvarůžky” cheese Festival held every April and taste these excellent cheese specialities.

6. Olomouc is the ideal venue for recreation

Year-round sporting activities are possible in the city. Criss-cross the region on the saddle of a bicycle, using the dense network of cycle paths through, for example, the blossoming floodplain forests along the River Morava. There are two long-distance bike trails (Moravská and Jantarová) connecting the region with the whole of Europe. Admirers of exotic animals should not forget to visit the Zoo on Svatý Kopeček. A visit to the Fortress of Knowledge is certain to be an unforgettable experience. Here, you can explore how the Laws of Nature function, and follow the history of military forts, several of which can be found in the city and close proximity.

7. Olomouc Region is full of breathtaking castles and caves

The impressive history of the Olomouc region has given rise to a varied mosaic of aristocratic residences. Bouzov Castle is famous for its fairy-tale appearance and is often used by filmmakers from all over Europe. You will be surprised by the uniquely preserved interiors and furniture of Šternberk Castle. Hefaiston, an international meeting of artist blacksmiths, is held annually behind the vast walls of Helfštýn Castle. Sturdy, fortified castles contrast with the decorative chateaus and manor houses spread all over the region. Among the most popular are Náměšť na Hané, Čechy pod Kosířem and Velké Losiny, where you can also visit the unique Museum of Handmade Paper.

The development of manor residences can be seen in parallel to the gradual formation of the cave domes of the local Karst system. Long corridors, deep abysses and rich cave formations can be found in Javoříčské and Mladečské caves. | www.kr-olomoucky.cz
