They know what they're doing here. And one thing is certain – you're going to come back. Not only for the amazing tartlets, divine Indiánek desserts and unrivalled cakes, but also for the friendly service, themed evenings, great coffee and breakfasts. NMdesserts is a paradise.

01 PUB U MUSEA – PONORKA

A legendary Olomouc pub renowned for its interesting clientèle. It has always comprised a combination of local students, poets, musicians and the bohemian community of Olomouc in general. It has hosted legends of the Czech underground, as well as performances of jazz and other minority genres.

02 MASNÉ KRÁMY | FORMER BUTCHER'S SHOPS

The former marketplace of the butchers' guild, which gave the long passage its name. The premises with a distinctive genius loci are home to small shops, cafés, wine bars and pubs. One floor up, you will find the beautiful premises of the original Olomouc theatre, also used as a restaurant.

03 VODNÍ KASÁRNA | WATER BARRACKS

An unmissable memorial to the original fortifications of Olomouc, which included a moat. The preserved walls now house several unique bars and restaurants offering international cuisine and exotic drinks, complemented by a large music club.

04 UHELNÁ STREET

Imaginative cocktails, aged rums, mature whiskeys, excellent coffee and properly brewed beer. All this is offered by Uhelná Street in the historical heart of Olomouc. The street, which stays alive long into the night, is the link between the water barracks and the meat shops.

05 WHISKEY BY THE DOME

The BLACK STUFF Irish Pub & Whisky Bar has graced the surroundings of the cathedral for two decades. Its owner Zdeněk Kortyš is one of the most renowned connoisseurs of Irish and Scotch whiskey and offers visitors more than a thousand bottles.

OLOMOUC CARNIVAL REVELRY / FEBRUARY

In mid-February, Olomouc comes alive with carnival revelry. Carnival brings unforgettable experiences and vivid images from the history of carnival revelry. You can come to the parade wearing a mask and taste items from a distinctive menu dominated by fatty and greasy foods. The smell of doughnuts, bacon and plum brandy permeates the entire square.

“OLOMOUCKÉ TVARŮŽKY” CHEESE FESTIVAL / APRIL

An April celebration of the only original Czech cheese with a distinctive taste and above all aroma. Two days of tasting dishes prepared with this cheese and culinary shows by the best Czech chefs. All this is complemented by a fair with regional products.

OLOMOUC WINE FESTIVAL / MAY AND SEPTEMBER

A celebration of wine held twice a year in the centre of Olomouc. The spring wine festival takes place in May and the autumn one in September. The organisers present thirty producers of great wine over two days, and the event is accompanied by a cultural programme.

BURGER STREET FESTIVAL / APRIL AND OCTOBER

An autumn feast for all burger and street food lovers. A festival of delicacies in a bun and specialities from the grill. The varied offer will not only satisfy all lovers of various types of meat but also vegetarians and vegans, as well as seekers of new tastes and aromas.

CHRISTMAS MARKETS / DECEMBER

Christmas in Olomouc is mainly associated with punch, which has made the whole Advent event on the central Olomouc square famous. A variety of punches and street food is part of the fair, which is usually accompanied by musical performances throughout December.
